BUSINESS ITEMS:

No action was taken on the following items due to a lack of quorum.

New Expense Contract: Simken Adult Foster Care Homes

Drew Kersjes presented in Shana Badgley's absence. This is a long term A contract provider with two 12-bed homes, and then a smaller six or eight bed home. They are awaiting re-licensure currently. With this item, CMHA-CEI will purchase residential services at the rates below independent of any amount paid to the home for room and board as calculated in the consumer's ability to pay for the period of July 19, 2025 through September 30, 2025. The effective date of this contract is contingent upon LARA AFC licensure and HCBS approval.

CMHA-CEI Consumer Advisory Council Recommended Appointees

Raul Gonzales said the recent meeting was productive. They interviewed two folks that applied. Both were very articulate in their presentation and had ideas ready to bring to the Council. Each council member provided their own commentary regarding the importance of the position. With Board approval, CMHA-CEI will appoint the following individuals named to serve as members of the Consumer Advisory Council.

- Michelle LaLone, for a 2-year term, to expire on 8/31/2027
- Jacob Sewell, for a 2-year term, to expire on 08/31/2027

Unfinished Business

a. Crisis Stabilization Unit Update

Sara shared WILX’s video regarding the status of construction on the Crisis Care Center. The video featured John Peiffer, Sara Lurie, and Gwenda Summers. They are hoping to have construction completed early in 2026. Jason White said he enjoyed the video and it was nice to see progress happening! Sara said she hadn't been into the building in quite some time and it is definitely taking shape.
